

Supreme Court of New Jersey Board on Continuing Legal Education 2020 Compliance Reporting Form for Current Year Noncompliance

This document is intended for the sole use of CLE noncompliant Group 1 attorneys (January – June birth month) who are reporting compliance following the expiration of the grace period but before the CLE Ineligible Order goes into effect. CLE noncompliant attorneys in 2020 who fail to immediately submit the required documentation may be placed on the CLE Ineligible List and precluded from practicing New Jersey law until compliance is resolved.

In response to the growing public health crisis worldwide and in New Jersey, the Court has relaxed the live classroom instruction requirement. Until further notice, all twenty-four credit hours for the compliance period may be fulfilled through approved courses offered in alternative verifiable learning formats (AVF): <https://www.njcourts.gov/notices/2020/n200310b.pdf>.

Reciprocity: Attorneys will receive 1:1 credit for courses accredited by another mandatory CLE jurisdiction, provided the credits and/or courses are not otherwise excluded by the BCLE Regulations.

Newly Admitted in 2018: Group 1 attorneys admitted in 2018 have a transitional reporting period and are required to demonstrate 12 credits, including 2 credits in ethics and/or professionalism.

Newly Admitted in 2017 and 2016: Group 1 attorneys admitted in 2017 and 2016 with a plenary license are required to demonstrate 24 credits, including 4 credits in ethics and/or professionalism and including 15 credits in at least 5 of 9 New Jersey specific areas, under BCLE Reg. 201:2.
